

M THE MAAO i N u t e

Our organization's way to provide you the most current information regarding all things related to MN Property Tax Assessment Administration.

Assessor Accreditation Deadline

The AMA license requirement applies to anyone who appraises or physically inspects real property to determine its market value or classification for property tax purposes.

If you appraise or inspect property for tax purposes and:

- You were licensed as a CMA or CMAS by July 1, 2017, you must get your AMA license by July 1, 2022.
- You are licensed as a CMA or CMAS after July 1, 2017, you must get your AMA license within five years of the date you were first licensed as an assessor in Minnesota.

Scholarships

The winner of the Family Member Scholarship was Callie Vold, daughter of Sandy Vold of Big Stone County. Callie is earning a graduate degree in Occupational Therapy at the University of North Dakota.

MAAO awarded a weeklong scholarship to Christopher Joseph for Assessment Laws & Procedures with Ethics for the July 12, 2021 course offering in St. Cloud.

Updates (cont.)

- Trainee Registration: An email was sent out to all 87 County Assessors on February 4, 2021; board members were copied on the email.
- MAAO Course Evaluations: Gregg Larson presented his findings of evaluations in a summary that he created for the board to review.
- Online Course Standards: CEH Committee used the online standards while reviewing continuing education course requests. The committee found it difficult to add any benchmarks for these types of courses. The standards are more for course developers, not as an approval source for course requests.
- MAAO Executive Board Meeting: Jane Grossinger attended the February 9, 2021 meeting and presented them with an update, based on the Board of Assessors minutes from the previous two board meetings. The only discussion from the executive board was about the future of the CMA licensure track. Jane explained that there will be more meetings and discussion in the future. Jane confirmed that she will attend the May Executive Board meeting.
- CMA/AMA 7/1/2022 deadline: A group comprised of members of the board, MAAO, MAAP, and the Department of Revenue met for the first time on February 19, 2021, to discuss the future of the CMA license. They determined the scope, who is impacted, and the next steps for future conversations. A CMA document was sent out to the group members to share with their groups. Another meeting will be scheduled late March/early April to discuss possible solutions from their representative groups.
- Sponsoring Organizations for Licensure Courses: Courses were reviewed for an assessor who moved from California. The organization that provided the board approved licensure courses was Allied Business School. The course content for all of the courses reviewed were equivalent to other board approved courses provided by recognized sponsoring organizations.
- Assessor Licensure Standards: Gary Amundson reported that the standards going forward; Jessi Glancey, Andrea Fish, Joy Kanne and Gary Amundson opened the project and will focus on the SAMA standards, pulling from AMA putting into SAMA, and including a new standard for management and leadership for SAMA standards. They will be having monthly meetings and report their progress at the next board meeting.
- MAAO Curriculum & Assessor Standards Committee: Reviewing the Basic Income course that will be taught this summer. Starting to create a plan for the review of Mass Appraisal, which they will start in June. The committee touched base with Joy Kanne, the instructor, and she is looking forward to working with the committee on this review and update.
- Complaint Summary: Since January 2021 the Department of Revenue has received no new complaints. At this time all investigations have been closed, and no new cases have been opened.

Discussion Items

- Mission & Vision Statement: The board reviewed and discussed the following items. Julie Rapacki assisted the board with the vision statement and the discussion for identifying improvements.
 - Mission Statement: "Promote public trust in the Minnesota property tax system and provide oversight of assessor licensing, continuing education, and ethical conduct." Charlie Blekre made a motion to accept the statement as written. Mike Reed seconded the motion. The motion carried.
 - Vision Statement Discussion: The board members shared their vision statements and selected the specific words for the vision statement. Gregg Larson & Jane Grossinger volunteered to review the words for the statement and report back at the May meeting with a better option for the wording.
 - Self-Assessment Improvements identified
 - All board members will actively participate in the decision making and other activities of the board.
 - We need a robust plan to meet our long-term objectives. The Board decided that goals need to be set as soon as possible, Gregg Larson and Joy Kanne volunteered to develop a plan on what the board could accomplish during the rest of the year and will report back to the board in May.
 - The board needs Bylaws that address succession planning and other procedural matters. Since the board does not have an executive committee to draft bylaws, Gregg Larson and Matt Gersemehl volunteered to develop an outline for the bylaws to review at the May meeting.
- Fundamentals of Real Property Appraisal Course: Jane Grossinger presented her findings based on the AMA Standards. Chapter 1 of the course met many of the AMA Standards in regard to fundamental real estate definitions regarding value, highest and best use and neighborhood. Chapters 2 - 4 focused on land valuation, cost approach and ratio studies, many of the objectives covered were not in the AMA Standards. Gary Amundson suggested starting a list of items to be reviewed to potentially be added to the AMA Standards. Jane Grossinger approves the course for credits similar to that of the MN Procedures, but will cross check the courses to compare content.
- IAAO Course 400: Assessment Administration & Course 312: Commercial/Industrial Modeling Matt Gersemehl presented his findings for these two IAAO courses based on the AMA Standards. Matt discovered that course 312 no longer exists, it was combined with course 311 Real Property Modeling Concepts and is a more advanced course equivalent to Mass Appraisal. It was decided by the board to remove course 312 from the property type specific list and add course 311 to the Mass Appraisal list. Matt felt the IAAO Assessment Administration course was more of a management and leadership course. Andrea Fish volunteered to review this course with the standards of a management and leadership course and bring her findings to the May board meeting.

- Market Analysis and Highest & Best Use & Residential Site Valuation & Cost Approach: Lori Schwendemann presented her findings for these two courses based on the AMA Standards. Market Analysis & Highest Best Use changed from residential, does not meet the property type specific category, it will only count as continuing education. The Residential Site Valuation & Cost Approach course does meet all of the standards as a property type specific course.
- Licensure Course Standards: It was decided it is not possible to consider setting a specific number of standards for a course to qualify as a licensure course, especially while the standards are still in development.
- Licensure Course Attendance: After much discussion, the board decided they are not obligated to have an attendance policy. It is up to each sponsoring organization to manage the attendance of students and have an attendance policy to follow.
- Assessment Experience vs AMA License Requirement: The board discussed the assessment experience timeline for the AMA license requirement, based on a special circumstance that was brought to the board. Matt Gersemehl made a motion to grant an additional year of experience to Eric Bjorklund, based on his extensive appraisal experience, as a licensed Minnesota Certified General Real Property Appraiser and a holder of a MAI designation from the Appraisal Institute. This would allow the applicant to apply for the AMA within the required timeline. Mike Reed seconded the motion. The motion carried.
- Law Changes: The board reviewed the current laws related to the board and assessor licensure; it was decided there were no changes needed at this time.
- Education Survey: Joy Kanne, Matt Gersemehl and Lori Schwendemann volunteered to help develop questions for the survey.
- BOA Member Vacancy Notices: Gregg Larson reviewed Statute 270.41 and the solicitation of names for an open position on the board. The board does not tell the Department of Revenue or MAAO how to advertise for applicants. Patrick Chapman stated MAAO will put out an email blast to the entire membership in the future.
- Case Study Exams: The board discussed the options for taking the exam with Patrick Chapman. Patrick explained that the exam has no time limit to complete the exam, and it's set up in two parts. MAAO has reasonable accommodations to assist anyone with exam anxieties.

Appointments with the Board

- Emily Squyres, MAAO Education Coordinator: Emily reviewed, the MAAO 2019-2021 course registrations and results with the board. She explained the reason for cancelling a few courses in 2021 and reviewed the courses that will be offered online in 2021. The IAAO online courses being offered in the fall, will follow IAAO's standards and testing procedures for online courses. Summer Seminars will be offering virtual and in person offerings, no hybrid, splitting in person and virtual only.
